

جامعة الفلاح
AL FALAH UNIVERSITY

Al Falah University Organizes a Workshop for Students and Faculty Members on ProQuest Database

Al Falah University in collaboration with ProQuest Company organized a workshop for students and faculty members to demonstrate the practical application of ProQuest databases. This highly efficient and valuable database is available at AFU Library.

The workshop catered to the main use of ProQuest and provided a detailed overview to the students about the database. It also provided the researchers the rules of research and citation through various scientific journals, reports, news, articles and scientific books and other research methods. It is a fact that diverse and different options enable researchers to get results fast and easy and Al Falah University aims to provide the best forum to its members.

The workshop concluded with responses to queries of the students and faculty members. It is worth mentioning that the AFU Library offers three databases of ProQuest Company;

ProQuest - ABI Inform Global, ProQuest - Dissertation - Theses Global, ProQuest - eBrary.

For more picture please click Here.