

Al Falah University Discusses Cooperation with Dubai Culture and Arts Authority

Dr. Noor Aldeen Atatreh, Al Falah University's Chancellor received the Acting Director General of the Dubai Culture and Arts Authority, H.E. Saeed Al Nabouda, at AFU Campus in Dubai to enhance cooperation and set in motion creative and innovative initiatives in the fields of tourism, culture, and arts.

"At Al Falah University, we seek to achieve cooperation with institutions in the UAE. Dubai Culture and Arts Authority is a prime organization that will help AFU enhance its educational outputs."

Dr. Atatreh stated that AFU is grooming a generation of graduates who value UAE's heritage culture and who could manage global events based on scientific knowledge that could contribute to the projects and events that will be implemented in Dubai and the UAE in general in conjunction with the start of Dubai Expo 2020.

H.E. Al Naboudah stressed that the Dubai Culture and Arts Authority is opening its doors to find training and career opportunities for graduates, particularly those who obtained their degrees in the Tourism and Events Management specialization. In accordance with the development and need of the labor market in the sectors of culture, arts, and heritage in the emirate of Dubai.

For more Visit: <https://bit.ly/2nk3gvO>

Tags: Featured News Chancellor News