Dubai Police and Al Falah University Spread Awareness on “Advantages and Disadvantages of Social Media Networking”

Dubai Police in collaboration with Al Falah University held a press conference at the Dubai Police Officers' Club for the opening ceremony of an awareness campaign catering to the use and misuse of Social Media. The campaign has been titled “Advantages and Disadvantages of Social Media Networking”. The event was graced by His Excellency Major General Mohamed Saad al-Sharif, Assistant Adjutant General of Dubai Police for Administration, the Director of Security Awareness Management, Colonel Dr. Jasim Khalil Mirza and the Vice President of Academic Affairs of Al Falah University, Dr. Samir Barghouthi

Major General Mohamed Saad al-Sharif briefed the audiences on the importance of promoting the safe use of social media communication. He explained that security is a major pillar of development. For the attainment of this clause the establishment intends to focus conscious efforts in how to use social networking sites safely because this will have a great impact on society. He also outlined the role of universities, schools and institutions in raising awareness among young people in society.

The Vice President of Academic Affairs, Dr. Samir Barghouthi expressed his gratitude upon the collaboration of Al Falah University with Dubai Police. He honored the valuable members of Dubai Police in their commitment to the community to create a climate of stability and security.

Dr. Barghouthi elaborated the role that Al Falah University intends to play in bringing about direct communication between Dubai Police and the community.
